

Driving Growth in Digital Retail

Flywheel was founded in 2014 when Amazon launched their Amazon Advertising platform, similar to Google adwords. Fast forward to 2022, and Flywheel is now the largest digital commerce agency focused on helping the world's largest brands plan, execute, and optimize retail media advertising for more than 400 brands. We are looking for Juniors and Seniors to join our team in Baltimore for full time and internship opportunities!

About Flywheel

Flywheel is a collection of talented practitioners solely focused on driving growth in digital retail. Having spent years deconstructing the eCommerce machine, our 400+ team uses a combination of proprietary technology, business analytics, and data science to develop winning eCommerce strategies for the world's largest brands out of our dog-friendly Baltimore and Seattle offices.

Opportunities:

eCommerce Retail or Media Specialist

- Eligible to Seniors graduating May 2022 or earlier.
- Develop and manage eCommerce retail or media strategies on behalf of the world's largest brands on platforms like Amazon, Walmart, and Instacart using proprietary technology and business analytics.
- Benefits include unlimited vacation, world class learning & development training, 401k Saving Incentive Plan, Generous Health Insurance Plan, and Life and Disability Insurance Plan.

Client Services Internship

- Eligible to Juniors graduating May 2023 or earlier.
- 12 Week Paid Internship starting in June based out of our beautiful dog-friendly Baltimore office.
- Work directly with our full time Specialists developing and executing eCommerce strategies.
- Perks include world class training, mentorship opportunities, dog-friendly office, and tons company sponsored social and community service events.
