

Is Your Future Going In the Right Direction?

The Metro College Intern Program — through the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority — is designed to cultivate future talent through paid internships, which offer increasing levels of work experience and professional development opportunities associated with the transit industry and Metro's operational environment. The program runs approximately 12 weeks, typically June through August. All internships are based in the Washington, DC Metropolitan Area.

Metro College Intern Program

A sample of participating departments:

Accounting Finance Legal
Transit Police Safety Auditing
Communications Marketing Business

Bus & Rail Engineering Emergency Management Human Resources
Transportation Urban Planning Government Relations

Benefits include:

- Increase your knowledge, communication and teamwork skills.
- Valuable connections and partnerships with fellow interns and contacts made through WMATA.
- Opportunity to explore career opportunities within the Transit industry.*
- Supplemental income during the school break.
- Exposure to a variety of career opportunities within WMATA.
- Free rides on Metrorail and Metrobus.

Eligibility requirements:

- Enrollment in an accredited college or university, with the student, at minimum, being a rising college sophomore.
- Major in course work aligned with the academic and functional requirements of the position for which the student has applied.
- Minimum cumulative 2.8 GPA. Additional departmental or functional requirements may apply per internship.
- Graduate students are welcome to apply.
- Students must submit an official college transcript to verify eligibility for the Metro College Intern Program.
- Students must be authorized to work in the U.S. without sponsorship, including all student visas.
- Students must live in the Washington DC Metropolitan Area while employed as an intern.

For more information and to apply to the Metro College Intern Program, visit wmata.com/internship.

WMATA is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. All qualified applicants receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, gender, gender identity, age, sexual orientation, genetic information, physical or mental disability, or status as a protected veteran, or any other status protected by applicable federal law, except where a bona fide occupational qualification exists. Our hiring process is designed to be accessible and free from discrimination.

^{*}Opportunities for conversion into full-time employment are available where applicable for qualified students and positions.