

Welcome to Colleen's Cozy Corner

Looking for an intern(s) to help promote 2 children's books in the field of Social Emotional Learning (SEL). Looking for someone who can create engaging Instagram posts on an already established page, help building a presence, and following. Also need someone to help with outreach to schools, libraries, local book stores in the DMV in hopes to get the books into their buildings.

Requirements:

Background and experience in social media marketing, good verbal communication, can put in at least 3 hours per week, have one 10-30 minute video meeting per week, post at least 3 times a week, various text communication throughout the week so I can approve post

As an intern, you may use this experience to help build your experience, portfolio, and resume. Assuming a good partnership is built, you may use this experience as a reference for future employment
